

SPANIEL AMERICAN COCKER

Class 99 Puppy

1st : Waldens Taramount Some Like it Hot

A really classy and well presented puppy considering it's just six months old
Movement was showing class with a superb head and body, {Best puppy in breed} and well deserved.

2nd : Murray & Mckenzie's Totem De La Chance Full of life with nice head & shoulders, well presented, should develop well.

Class 100 Special Yearling

1st : Murray & Mckenzie's Kellicious Nebraska Night A good looking black boy with correct confirmation, good head and shoulders, topline help well on the move and very well presented.
{reserve best of breed}

Class 101 Post Graduate

1st : Rivetts Leader Line Indi {Imp BLR} Nice compact body with correct head and shoulders, good return of stifle with good movement.

2nd Waldens Taramount Bicentennial Man A nice strong boy with well developed shoulders and body, moved well with well held topline, very nicely turned out and presented.

Class 102 Open

1st : Waldens Taramount Wot Dream May Come ShCM what a wonderful example of the breed, I could not fault its structure, movement or presentation, superb head & eye, good stifle and held its topline well on the move, I had great pleasure in awarding this classic example {best of breed}.

2nd : Luczynski's Baladeva Scarlet Letters For Kanara ShCM A nice small compact example with a happy movement, also had a good topline on the move, the neck and head were well placed and was very well presented.

SPANIEL ENGLISH COCKER

Class 107 Puppy

1st : Hutchings Pinkmoon Pippin By Beechtops A really nice well presented and turned out puppy, with good bone and structure, strong on the movement, a classic head, really a class puppy and well deserving {Best Puppy In Breed}.

2nd : Phillips Lindenmarsh Give Me Shelter Lovely compact blue bitch, settled well on the move with a good topline, the shoulders and chest were well developed, overall a very pleasing and promising puppy.

Class 108 Junior

1st : Warringtons Zakova Sunburst Top of the class dog displaying all the classic points of a show winning well bred Cocker Spaniel, could not fault its construction, movement and handling, I really liked its ring presence and the way it maintained its topline and composure on the move, went on to be awarded {Best of Breed} and well deserved.

Class 109 Special Yearling

1st : Rofe's Oakrosa Raiden A well constructed dog with correct head a shoulders, good return of stifle and went well on the move, very well handled and presented. its construction was good with a nice deep chest. Awarded {Reserve Best Of Breed}

Class 110 Graduate

1st Warringtons Zakova Sugar Plum A well presented bitch, settled well on the move and held a good topline, I liked its head and eye, nicely put together dog with good bone and depth of chest.

2nd : Cliffords Serici After Dark At Shadow Amor of Chamford Imp SRB an all round classy little dog with a good deep chest, held its topline well on the move, displayed and presented.

Class 112 Open

1st : Huctchings Beechtops Majestic a nice compact bitch very happy on the move with a lovely expression, correct head, neck and shoulders, help the topline well on the move, well muscled but compact body and well turned out.

2nd Warringtons Chativore Steel Blue At Zakova a good mover with a good return of stifle, could not find fault with its construction, well balanced on the move, held it's topline well, with a strong head and shoulders.

Dr Stuart Crisp {Genavieve}.