Special Yearling (4,1)

- 1 Stevens' Pixbrook Joyrider at Sanbosier
At 9 months is already looking the part, she is feminine but has substance. Good head with correct stop. Clean neck with sloping shoulders, deep chest and short back, firm quarters with enough stifle. Moved freely to win Best of Breed over her sire. I will follow her progress with interest.

Post Grad (1)

- 1 Bagshaw and Precey's Tresallier Jeu D'Artifice
A lovely 13 month tricolour with a lot of promise, good head with keen expression, good clean neck, strong body with well-rounded ribs, strong quarters. Moved well enough in the limited space.

Open (1)

- 1 Stevens' Jassendue Inspiration at Sanbosier
Sire of the Best of Breed. Good head with plenty of stop, clean neck of good length, sloping shoulders, well boned legs, short in back with strong quarters, moved busily. Reserve Best of Breed.

Pointers – A good quality entry.

Junior (1)

- 1 Welch's Hookwood As Good as Gold
Super youngster, just out of puppy, this b/w has everything in the right places, good head, strong but not coarse, firm long clean neck, straight front leading to sloping shoulders. Enough chest for his age, firm over the loins, well-muscled quarters, should do well. Reserve Best of Breed.

Graduate (2,1)

- 1 Brooksmith's Nightgold Blackavar
This 4 year b/w has a lot to like; she has a pleasing head with clean neck of good length, well boned legs, good length of ribcage and a good bend of stifle. Carrying the correct amount of weight.

Post Grad (3,1)

- 1 Welch's Droveborough Go for Gold by Hookwood

I did this b/w girl well as a youngster and see no reason to change my opinion. She has a good head with balance and shape, well laid shoulders, good body with width and depth of chest, well angulated quarters and a good tail set.

- 2 Stangroom's Pipeaway Laura Louisa at Lappakia

Open (3)

- 1 Brooksmith's Medogold Kiss N Tell

I really fell for this 2 year old l/w girl today. She has a good head with bright eyes and a soft expression. Her long clean neck leads into sloping shoulders, good depth of body and firm couplings, strong quarters giving a balanced and clean outline. She moved correctly showing plenty of extension from the side. She was a little apprehensive at times but gave enough to win Best of Breed.
